Establish a Planning Committee

Form a diverse committee of women representing different age groups, backgrounds, and ministries within the church. Assign clear roles such as program coordinator, hospitality lead, publicity manager, and finance officer.

Set a Timeline and Budget

Develop a detailed timeline that includes milestones for securing speakers, confirming performers, ordering supplies, and promoting the event. Establish a realistic budget to cover expenses like decorations, food, honorariums, and materials.

Publicize the Event

Utilize church bulletins, social media, flyers, and announcements during services to build excitement and encourage participation. Highlight the theme, guest speakers, and special features to attract a wide audience.
