tanzania institute of accountancy: Tanzania David Lawrence, 2009 This is a general introduction to Tanzania. It's also a look at Tanzania from a contemporary and historical perspective. The focus is on Tanzania today. Some of the major political, economic and social developments which have taken place in the country especially since the seventies also constitute a significant part of the book. The book is intended for those who are going to Tanzania for the first time and for anybody else who wants to learn some basic facts about the largest country in East Africa. Readers are also going to learn quite a few things about the people of Tanzania and their tribes or ethnic groups and where these groups traditionally live. Also covered in the book are the towns and cities in all the provinces of this large country. The purpose is to provide a comprehensive picture of the country by focusing on a number of areas including a general background of Tanzania; the geography of the country; life in Tanzania today and how life was in the seventies and eighties under socialism known as ujamaa which means familyhood in Kiswahili; the country's transition from socialism to a free market economy; ethnic groups or tribes and their home districts and regions; racial minorities who constitute a significant part of Tanzania's population; the Swahili people and their culture; towns and cities; the union of Tanganyika and Zanzibar and its prospects and challenges; and life in Tanzania - in what was then Tanganyika - in the fifties just before independence. There are also chapters on Dar es Salaam, the nation's largest city and commercial centre and former capital, and on the former island nation of Zanzibar. Tanzania also is unique in one fundamental respect. It's the only union of two independent countries ever formed on the African continent. And it's the only one that exists today almost half a century after it was formed. The union between Tanganyika and Zanzibar is one of the subjects covered in the book, and readers are going to learn about one of the most important events in the history of post-colonial Africa on a continent where the quest for unity has remained an elusive dream since independence in the fifties and sixties. The book also includes a lot of information on Tanganyika just before independence and how it became one of the first countries in Africa to emerge from colonial rule. Also included is some material on one of the most interesting ethnic groups in African history and how it came into being. It's the Swahili whose language is also known as Swahili especially among many people around the world who are not native speakers of the language. Among the native speakers, the language is called Kiswahili. It's the main language spoken in Tanzania and Kenya. It's also spoken in several other countries in east-central Africa. And we are going to learn something about this language which transcends ethnicity. Kiswahili is not identified with any African tribe, making it a truly Pan-African language building bridges across ethnicity, cultures and nations especially in the eastern part of the continent. And as you learn about Tanzania, you are also going to learn a few things about an area bigger than Tanzania because of the country's connection to other parts of East Africa and beyond.

tanzania institute of accountancy: Education in Tanzania in the Era of Globalisation Lugalla, Joe L.P., Ngwaru, Jacob Marriote, 2019-03-31 Education in Tanzania in the Era of Globalisation Challenges and Opportunities is a product of papers presented at a National Education Conference held in Dodoma, Tanzania in November 2016 and organised by the Aga Khan University-Institute for Educational Development, East Africa (AKU-IED-EA). At present, Tanzania's development direction is guided by Vision 2025, which aims to achieve a high quality livelihood for its people. Attainment of Vision 2025 will depend largely on rapid socio-economic development based on several social and economic pillars including, most importantly, education. Clearly, for Tanzania, the scope and quality of education remains the single most important prerequisite to the attainment of Vision 2025 and the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The individual chapters in this publication, and their collective thrust, discuss the challenges in the education system in good faith and in the spirit of cooperation and collaboration guided by the belief that it is not the responsibility of the Government alone to see how these can be addressed. AKU IED EA has identified this as the responsibility of all well-meaning corporate bodies and citizens, and initiated this conference of its type as its contribution to that conference, as well as the publication, has to be seen as a model of good practice for universities in terms of sharing knowledge, experience, and practice with other stakeholders who are not in the academy, and more so, with politicians as well as government policy planners. The various authors of Education in Tanzania in the Era of Globalisation Challenges and Opportunities discuss issues within the context of the Tanzanian political economy against the effects of globalization and seek to initiate a new kind of debate that is long overdue; a debate aimed at charting out appropriate strategies whose objective is to improve the quality of education in Tanzania so that it becomes a useful vehicle in enhancing processes of social change, transformation and development.

Mojekwu, Wellington Didibhuku Thwala, Lawrence Atepor, Emmanuel Adinyira, Gabriel Nani, Emmanuel Bamfo-Agyei, 2023-02-17 This book presents papers from the 11th Sustainable Education and Development Research Conference on the theme: Build Resilient Infrastructure, Promote Inclusive and Sustainable Industrialization, and Foster Innovation. Papers related to the sub-themes were presented: i. Develop quality, reliable, sustainable, and resilient infrastructure, including regional and transborder infrastructure, to support economic development and human well-being, with a focus on affordable and equitable access for all. ii. Promote inclusive and sustainable industrialization and, by 2030, significantly raise industry's share of employment and gross domestic product, in line with national circumstances, and double its share in the least developed countries. iii. Increase the access of small-scale industrial and other enterprises, in particular in developing countries, to financial services, including affordable credit, and their integration into value chains and markets. iv. By 2030, upgrade infrastructure and retrofit industries to make them sustainable, with increased resource-use efficiency and greater adoption of clean and environmentally sound technologies and industrial processes, with all countries taking action in accordance with their respective capabilities. v. Enhance scientific research and upgrade the technological capabilities of industrial sectors in all countries, in particular developing countries, including, by 2030, encouraging innovation and substantially increasing productivity. SEDRC gathers papers that explain how key education on the Sustainable Development Goals is transforming lives, eradicating poverty, professing solutions to the infrastructural deficit in Africa, and providing innovative ways to provide affordable housing in Africa. This book will be of interest to academics, postgraduate students, and industry professionals.

tanzania institute of accountancy: Corporate Social Responsibility in Sub-Saharan Africa Stephen Vertigans, Samuel O. Idowu, René Schmidpeter, 2015-12-21 This book provides a comprehensive overview of corporate social responsibility and its development in Africa. It provides in-depth studies on 11 sub-Saharan countries, demonstrating that corporate social responsibility is forming and going through different stages of metamorphosis in the continent. Though corporate and individual attitudes towards sustainability in Africa still leave a lot to be desired, this book showcases how things are rapidly changing for the better in this regard. It demonstrates and provides evidence for the fact that corporate social responsibility contributes significantly to the way sub-Saharan African economies are being transformed, with service sectors expanding, commercial activities diversifying and industrial bases growing through the initiatives of small, medium and large organizations and innovators supported by widespread higher-education program rollouts. The book highlights how progressive and wide-ranging CSR approaches have emerged, and how much they differ from the obsolete approaches of the past, which promulgated negative stereotypes, marginalized communities and positioned them as victims or beneficiaries of development.

tanzania institute of accountancy: New Public Management in Africa Benon C. Basheka, Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe, 2017-08-25 The administrative sciences have been dominated by a turn to managerial perspectives in the late 20th and early 21st centuries, and in the spirit of this turn, 'New Public Management' (or NPM) promises to produce efficient, responsible and client-oriented public services. The reforms carried out in the pursuit of New Public Management are often accompanied by great optimism and rapid, enthusiastic steps toward implementation. Even in highly developed industrial countries, however, these fundamental reforms often overlook the political and cultural contexts of the implementing country. New Public Management in Africa: Emerging Issues and Lessons provides much-needed theoretical foundations for NPM reforms in the African context and reflects on the success of existing reforms in the development of several African states. The individual contributions in this timely volume provide important analyses of academic discourse, practical policy, achievements, and desiderata. The book as a whole, however, provides a valuable impetus for public administration research in and on African states, sharing findings on the results of reforms to date and adjustments required for these reforms to succeed. For public administration researchers outside of Africa, this book offers a review of New Public Management case studies that are unavailable or difficult to find elsewhere, contributing much to the exchange between African and Western administration science research, and demonstrating that African administrative research is well-prepared to help resolve global challenges.

tanzania institute of accountancy: State of the Art in Partial Least Squares Structural Equation Modeling (PLS-SEM) Lăcrămioara Radomir, Raluca Ciornea, Huiwen Wang, Yide Liu, Christian M. Ringle, Marko Sarstedt, 2023-09-15 This edited volume brings together some of the best papers from the 2022 Conference on Partial Least Squares Structural Equation Modeling (PLS-SEM), held at the Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj, Romania. The volume seeks to expand the current research on PLS-SEM and promote the method's application in the scientific community. It gathers research from scholars in many different fields who work on the advancement of PLS-SEM and who apply the method to explain and predict behavioral phenomena. Researchers today can draw on a wide array of different PLS-SEM-based algorithms, complementary methods, and model evaluation metrics. Tying in with these developments, the first part of this book documents methodological advances of PLS-SEM, which extend the researchers' current toolbox of methods. The following parts demonstrate state-of-the-art applications of PLS-SEM in various fields such as consumer behavior, hospitality, human resource management, entrepreneurship, and organizational behavior. Special emphasis is placed on studies that apply complementary methods to offer a more nuanced analysis of the research questions.

tanzania institute of accountancy: Jah Kingdom Monique A. Bedasse, 2017-08-11 From its beginnings in 1930s Jamaica, the Rastafarian movement has become a global presence. While the existing studies of the Rastafarian movement have primarily focused on its cultural expression through reggae music, art, and iconography, Monique A. Bedasse argues that repatriation to Africa represents the most important vehicle of Rastafari's international growth. Shifting the scholarship on repatriation from Ethiopia to Tanzania, Bedasse foregrounds Rastafari's enduring connection to black radical politics and establishes Tanzania as a critical site to explore gender, religion, race, citizenship, socialism, and nation. Beyond her engagement with how the Rastafarian idea of Africa translated into a lived reality, she demonstrates how Tanzanian state and nonstate actors not only validated the Rastafarian idea of diaspora but were also crucial to defining the parameters of Pan-Africanism. Based on previously undiscovered oral and written sources from Tanzania, Jamaica, England, the United States, and Trinidad, Bedasse uncovers a vast and varied transnational network--including Julius Nyerere, Michael Manley, and C. L. R James--revealing Rastafari's entrenchment in the making of Pan-Africanism in the postindependence period.

tanzania institute of accountancy: Bilanzierung von Immobilien nach HGB, IAS und US-GAAP Arnim Voissem, 1998-03-19 Inhaltsangabe: Einleitung: Nach der Globalisierung der Produktions- und Absatzmärkte verschmelzen zunehmend auch die nationalen Finanzmärkte zu globalen Geld- und Kapitalmärkten. Gründe hierfür sind der Abbau der Finanzmarktrestriktionen, als auch die Fortschritte der Kommunikationstechnik sowie die Institutionalisierung der Anlegerschaft. Deutsche Unternehmen sehen dies immer häufiger als Möglichkeit, ihren steigenden Bedarf an Risikokapital zu decken. Die Unternehmen haben erkannt, daß sie durch eine internationale Kapitalmarktpresenz eine breitere Aktienstreuung und höhere Liquidität ihrer Aktie als auch ein besseres Unternehmensimage und geringere Kapitalkosten erreichen können. Dabei kann sich die Konzernrechnungslegung nicht allein an den Bestimmungen des Handelsgesetzbuches (HGB) ausrichten. Vielmehr stehen den großen deutschen Unternehmen zwei internationale Normengefüge als Referenzsysteme zur Auswahl. Es handelt sich dabei um die US-amerikanischen Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (US-GAAP) und die International Accounting Standards (IAS) des International Accounting Standards Committee (IASC). Die Richtlinien der Europäischen Union müssen hinsichtlich der verschiedenen nationalen Transformationen mit abweichenden Wahlrechtsgestaltungen als Referenzsystem ausscheiden. Der US-amerikanische Kapitalmarkt gehört zu den größten, renommiertesten und umsatzstärksten Kapitalmärkten der Welt. Beabsichtigt ein deutsches Unternehmen momentan eine Notierung am US-amerikanischen Kapitalmarkt, verlangt die US-amerikanische Börsenaufsichtsbehörde (SEC) eine Überleitungsrechnung (reconciliation) oder die Erstellung eines vollständigen Parallelabschlusses nach US-GAAP. Derzeit sind Daimler Benz, Deutsche Telekom, Fresenius Medical Care, Hoechst, Pfeiffer Vacuum Technology, SLG Carbon und VEBA den Weg einer SEC-Registrierung gegangen.

Als Alternative bieten sich die IAS an. Hierfür spricht besonders der zwischen IASC und dem weltweiten Zusammenschluß nationaler Börsenaufsichtsbehörden (IOSCO) vereinbarte Arbeitsplan, der vorsieht, daß die IOSCO ab 1999 ihren angeschlossenen Organisationen die Anerkennung IAS-konformer Jahresabschlüsse empfiehlt. Immer mehr deutsche Unternehmen richten ihre Konzernabschlüsse an den IAS aus. Der überragende Einfluß des US-amerikanischen Kapitalmarktes und die wachsende Bedeutung der IAS lassen eine internationale Dominanz der anglo-amerkanisch geprägten Rechnungslegung erwarten. Dies spiegelt sich im Entwurf eines [...]
