Please refer to your textbook for the exact words in your lesson.)

Section 1: Understanding Context Clues and Word Roots

This section will usually focus on identifying and utilizing context clues within sentences to decipher the meaning of unfamiliar words. It also often introduces common word roots, prefixes, and suffixes that appear in many vocabulary words. Mastering these elements is critical for independent vocabulary building.

Example: Let's say one of the words is "benevolent." The answer key might provide the definition "kindly; charitable." But this section would encourage you to break down the word: "bene" often means "good" and "volent" relates to "will" or "wish." Understanding this helps you infer the meaning even without looking up the word.

This section focuses on applying your knowledge of the words in context. You'll be given sentences with blanks and asked to choose the correct word to complete the sentence meaningfully. This is crucial for demonstrating your understanding of vocabulary in practical application.

Example: A sentence might read: "Despite the _____ task, she persevered and completed the project." The correct answer would be a word like "arduous" (difficult).

Section 4: Vocabulary in Context: Reading Comprehension

This section often involves a short passage followed by questions that test your understanding of the vocabulary words within the context of the passage. This section helps you apply your vocabulary knowledge to real-world reading situations.

In this dictionary, words were placed in order of their occurrence in the Surahs of the Qur'an, avoiding those words which were repeated. For example, the words Alif-Laam-Meem of Surah al-Baqarah come first and those of Surah aale-Imran come next, and so on.
